Happy New Year!

One year has ended and, through the grace of God, we are able to witness a new year. In this coming year may we draw from James, the brother of Christ, to resolve to become better Christians so that people may see Christ in us. If you find yourself in need of wisdom in 2022, ask with faith and it will be given to you. (James 1:5) Moreover, as you read, study, and hear God's word may we be more than hearers but also doers (James 1:22) and may we aim to choose our words carefully, controlling our tongue so that it honors God and edifies those in need (James 3:3 – 12). As with the prior year, Satan and his angels are seeking to devour you, therefore, resist the devil in 2022 and he will depart from you (James 4:7). But most importantly, in this new year may we all resolve to "...fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself'" (James 2:8). Standfast in God's word this coming year and may the blessings of His Son shower you with mercy and grace. Happy New Year!

Perry Sims, M.Div.
