All Scripture is Good

Paul wrote to Timothy, teaching him “All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.” (2nd Tim 3:16 -17) However, that did not stop some from selecting certain parts of the bible and omitting others, thereby disregarding Paul’s inspired teachings. Marcion of Synope was one. He taught that the bible consisted of two Gods, an evil God from the Old Testament, and a loving God from the New Testament. Because of this belief he created his own bible and it only included a reduced version of Luke, and the following Pauline letters: Galatians, I and II Corinthians, I and II Thessalonians, Colossians, Philippians, and Philemon. Missing was the entire Old Testament! The lesson learned from Marcion is that we must not be “selective” when it comes to God’s inspired word. If we do we can repeat his error by disregarding books that troubles us or erroneously dismissing the entire Old Testament. As the spirit taught Paul, “All scripture is giving by the inspiration of God.”
