Love One Another

February 14 is valentine's day; a day that husbands and wives, engaged couples, dating couples, and others celebrate their love for each other. As signs of their affection, people will give and receive flowers, cards, and candy; some couples may go out to eat, some may get engaged, and others may renew their wedding vows. They do all of this in the name of love. And that is good because we are commanded to love one another. Christ told his disciples, "This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you." (John 15:12) Christ speaks of a special love, a love the is so great that you are willing to give your life for another (John 15:13). What is so different about this type of love is that we must have it for everyone, and not just those close to us. Moreover, as Christians this type of love is not optional, for Christ says, "If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love." (John 15:10) May we love others as Christ loves us.
