The Resurrection

All four gospels record the resurrection of Jesus (Matthew 28:1–8, Mark 16:1–8, Luke 24:2–12, and John 20:1–13). Following the council of Nicaea in 325 many religious institutions designated a certain Sunday to commemorate this event, which became Easter. Historians are not sure how we got the term Easter, but some say it parallels the German word Ostern and the celebration came from from Eostre (or Eostræ), the Anglo-Saxon goddess of spring and fertility. Like Christmas, we see that easter has pagan roots that took hold in Christianity. Scripture does not command us to celebrate Easter as a church holiday, but it is good that the secular world recognizes that Jesus defeated death, according to the scripture. Like Christmas, we can use Easter as a time to fellowship with family, friends, and loved ones to share the gospel with them. The gospel is the good news that Jesus is the Christ, He is the Son of God, He came to this earth as a man, He died for our sins, and as promised, He was resurrected. Death could not hold Him and it will not hold any who die in Christ!
