Being A Man

This may sound like a simple question, but what does it mean to be a man? Unfortunately, in these times some males have equated manhood to things quite different than what my grandfather, father, and uncles taught me about manhood. For example, some males think being a man means always getting the upper hand on everyone else, being dominant in all situations, and making sure everyone knows they will “mess you up” if you cross them the wrong way. These type men make great movie characters, but in the end they will have major problems. Why? Because scripture teaches that being a man means imitating the Son of Man, Jesus the Christ, by ministering to others (Mark 10:45). It means being loving, compassionate, merciful, and not being afraid to show your emotions for we read, “Jesus wept” (John 11:35). And if others respect and admire you, men are to be humble like Peter who told Cornelius who had bowed down to worship him, “Stand up, I am only a man myself” (Acts 10:26). In all things, may we seek God’s word for it will teach us what it means to be a man.

Perry Sims, M.Div.
