Some Thoughts on Prayer

Prayer is an opportunity for each of us to talk to God directly. If you are having a problem with a big corporation today it's almost impossible to get to the head man. If you can even get to his office you will be directed to an underling that will act on his behalf. But you won't, in most cases, get to the top. When we pray we are going DIRECTLY to the top. We can do this because Jesus has given us permission. We are praying "In Christ's Name". We pray to God and ask him for favors, we thank him for blessings and we beg forgiveness for our sins. It's a very special time for us. God wants us to come to him with our supplications. He is ready to hear us at any time. But we need to be humble, thankful and sincere. A loving father wants to help his children. And God is faithful to answer our prayers when we pray in the proper manner.

One time I heard a man in a public prayer ask for forgiveness and for God to give him justice. I thought to myself 'that's a brave man'. I personally don't want God to give me justice. I don't want him to give me what I deserve. I don't think I could stand that. I'm begging for mercy. I hope all of you pray regularly. I hope you pray for the Church. I hope you pray for our country. And I hope you pray, everyday, for each other.
