Things I don't worry about

If you know me you know that I see things differently than most others. For instance if I see a half glass of water I don't see it half full nor half empty. I see it as that someone didn't properly prepare for the amount of liquid they had to accommodate.

In our Bible studies we have had a lot of discussion about what happens to us after we die. Where does the soul and spirit go? I don't know. What I do know is that God has it all planned out. I can't change it. I don't want to. It's all part of God's perfect plan and I trust him. So why would I spend time worrying about something I have no control over? What I need to worry about is keeping myself in a position to find out what happens and what Heaven is like. What's the difference between the soul and the spirit? Again, I don't know. But, again, I'm trusting that God has it handled. It's in his hands.

I don't much worry about other churches and what they do. I've compared them and they just don't measure up to the Bible and what it teaches. The Bible is God's complete and perfect word. It's all I have and all I need. We don't have, nor need, our own "creed book" nor our own version. The Bible tells us how to be saved, how God wants to be worshiped and how we should live and treat others. It tells us we should pray for each other. And that's what I am always asking you to do. We pray for each other's physical well being but we also need to pray about each others Spiritual well being. I want all you to be in good health but more than that I want you to be in good stead with our Heavenly Father.
