LADIES DAY 2018

September the 8th will be the date for our Ladies Day. There are teams forming for help to execute this day. Please signup and be an effective part of making this day as successful as it has been in the past.

SUMMER SERIES

If you aren't attending on Wednesdays you are really missing out. We had a lesson on "Love Does Not Seek Its Own" last Wednesday and it was VERY good. Please try your best to be here. It's beneficial for your soul.

NEW WORKERS

We have had several lessons about church order. We will continue to have those and ask to please start praying and considering names of men to serve as deacons and elders here in Monroe. This is a very serious position to hold. Please listen to the lessons and think of men that meet the requirements. Soon we will be asking for any names you may have for these positions.

We are also looking for teachers for the next quarter. We have 7 classes, ranging from nursery age, to a teenager class. If you are willing to teach, these classes are on Sunday mornings at 9:30-10:15 and Wednesday evening 7-7:45. If you havent taught but wanted to we can have a helper with you for assistance.

God Knows Our Name!
By Mike Riley

There are folks in our world who believe that God is a non-caring God – a nebulous God who is completely detached from His creation and created beings. As Christians, it's comforting to know that the God we serve knows our name and is personally concerned about our welfare and well-being (John 10:14-NKJV; cf. 1 Corinthians 8:3-NKJV; Gal. 4:9-NKJV; 2 Timothy 2:19-NKJV; 1 Peter 5:7-NKJV).

Let us look at the following examples to illustrate the fact that our God takes a personal interest in each one of His followers:

- Before his name is changed to Abraham, God calls to Abram out of a vision saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram" (Genesis 15:1-NKJV).
- When Abraham is about to offer his only son Isaac upon the alter, the angel of the Lord calls to him out of heaven saying, "Abraham, Abraham" (Genesis 22:11-NKJV).
- The angel of the Lord speaks directly to Jacob saying, "Jacob" (Genesis 31:11-NKJV), and in a vision saying, "Jacob, Jacob" (Genesis 46:2-NKJV).
- Moses' encounter with God at the burning bush (Exodus 3:1-2-NKJV). As Moses goes to investigate why the burning bush is not consumed, God calls to him from out of the bush saying, "Moses, Moses" (Exodus 3:3-4-NKJV).
- Young Samuel being fast asleep, when he repeatedly hears the Lord's voice say, "Samuel" (1 Samuel 3:4,6,8,10-NKJV).
- Saul hears the voice of the Lord say, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" (Acts 9:4-NKJV).

All of the above verses consistently affirm that God does indeed know His children by name. He is very much aware of our problems, our attitudes, our motives, our works (whether good or evil), and our sins. Since this is the case, we should rejoice that our God is a loving, long-suffering, merciful, and forgiving God, who is personally interested in each one of us.

Let's give praise, glory, and honor to His name this day and every day! (Psalm 30:10-12-NKJV; Psalm 42:11-NKJV; Psalm 150:1,2,6-NKJV).
