THE TEAMS HAVE MET!

Things are being discussed and new info will be given soon. Please be patient as we reassemble these areas of work. The Elders will be doing the budget soon. If there are any areas you want to bring to their attention please talk to Larry or Frank. Once they have finalized everything they will present it to the congregation as a whole.

BIG THANKS... to Josh and Jessica for hosting the 2nd Annual Pumpkin Carving party. Everyone had a great time!

Thank you for visiting with us today...

You are truly our honored guests! We hope that you find our Bible Study and Worship Service beneficial to you. We seek only to worship God in the same manner as done by Christians when the church began in Acts 2. Please stay after services so that we may get to know you. For your convenience, there is a nursery in the foyer for babies up to 18 months old and a toddlers room next to the auditorium.

It Takes.....
By Mike Riley

How many people does it take to do the work of the church? How many members of a congregation need to be involved in order to share in the success of the local work?

It takes every elder to meditate and pray as they guide, protect, and provide spiritual nourishment to every member of the local flock (Acts 6:4 – NKJV; Acts 20:28 – NKJV; Hebrews 13:7 – NKJV; Hebrews 13:17 – NKJV). It takes every deacon to serve under the direction of the elders as he has been appointed in the church (1 Timothy 3:8-13 – NKJV). They are the right hand of the eldership in both the physical and spiritual work of the church (Acts 6:2-3 – NKJV).

It takes every preacher to stand for the truth and preach without favor or compromise (Acts 20:20 – NKJV). They will promote the way of the cross, planting the seed of God's word, and trusting that God will give the increase in the true and honest heart (Luke 8:11 – NKJV; 1 Corinthians 3:6-8 – NKJV).

It takes every teacher of the Bible to remember that they have a tremendous responsibility in shaping and molding the lives of their students (James 3:1 – NKJV). They will not only take heed to themselves, but be an example to others (1 Timothy 4:12 – NKJV, 1 Timothy 4:16 – NKJV).

It takes every man and woman to use their talents, serving as they are able (Ephesians 4:11-15 – NKJV). As they provide for their children, they will emphasize spiritual knowledge, showing them that the church and salvation is an important aspect in a balanced life (Ephesians 6:4 – NKJV).

It takes every young person to fortify themselves against the peer pressures of the world by growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord, and being confident in their faith in Christ, no matter what anyone may say (2 Peter 3:18 – NKJV; 1 Peter 3:16 – NKJV).

It takes every member to be an example of godliness and love so others may be taught and converted to the truth of God's Son (1 Timothy 4:7-8 – NKJV; John 13:35 – NKJV). The borders of the kingdom will increase because of their concern for lost souls (Acts 8:4 – NKJV).
How many members does it take to do the work of the church?

It takes as many members as a congregation has.
